

Conversation Questions

1. When conflict happens in your life, are you more likely to “fight” or “flee”? Why do you think that is your natural response?
2. What do you think makes it difficult for us to have honest conversations with people that we have conflict with?
3. What does “seeking wise counsel” and “building a side” in a conflict mean to you? What is the difference? Have you ever seen or experienced that difference?
4. What does it look like to pursue reconciliation while still releasing control of the outcome do you think?
5. Is there a relationship or conflict in your life where God may be asking you to “face it” rather than avoid it? What might your next right step be this week?