

Conversation Questions

1. As you can imagine, the possibilities were endless, why do you think God included the commandment to not murder as 1 of the 10?
2. What “what if” scenarios do you wrestle with regarding the command to not murder and why?
3. There is a different call on the life of Christians to sort of “take it” a bit, “take it on the chin” if you will, but love back. How well do you let this play out in your life?
4. In what ways can you check your heart and/or guard your heart so that negativity doesn’t seep in and lead you towards ungodly thoughts, behaviors & actions towards others, including hatred/words & actions of hate?
5. Words matter and negative ones towards others Jesus puts on the same level as murder. What do you think about that? What does that bring up in you? What actions are brought to mind for you to live in line, rather than out of line in this regard?
6. In what ways are you intentionally leaning away from “murder” in your life, putting your “swords away” if you will, since we’re not to live by the sword per Jesus words?
