

Conversation Questions

1. Salt is meaningless until it's added to something — where in your daily life are you "in the shaker" instead of out among the people God has placed near you?
2. Think about the rising-tide idea: is there a person or a corner of your community whose "welfare" you've never actually prayed for? What would change if you started?
3. Jesus saw the crowds and felt compassion. Where do you find it hardest to see people the way Jesus saw them?
4. Your light is meant to multiply in community, not stand alone. Who in your life could you "shine alongside" this week — someone you could partner with rather than go it alone?
5. Jesus' final promise was "I am with you always." Where do you most need to remember his presence right now — and who is one coworker, neighbor, or person in your Summer Circle that you could be present to this week?
