

Conversation Questions

1. Who has been the kind of friend who stayed and showed up for you when life was difficult? What did their presence mean to you?
2. Why do you think it is often easier to walk away than to stay when a friendship becomes difficult?
3. Is there someone in your life God may be asking you to “show up” for right now? What would that actually look like?
4. What might you need to “die to” in order to be a better friend—your pride, comfort, convenience, schedule, need to be right, or something else?
5. How does knowing that Jesus stayed with us—even when we were sinful, confused, and failing—change the way you think about staying with others?
