

Conversation Questions

1. What are some ways leaders unintentionally “lord it over” people and what would servant leadership look like instead?
2. Where are you most tempted to make leadership, influence, or responsibility about yourself rather than about building others up? Why do you think that is in that area specifically?
3. Jesus demonstrated servant leadership by washing His disciples' feet. Who is someone God has placed in your life that you could intentionally right now? What could that look like practically?
4. “If leadership never costs us anything, we're probably using leadership more for ourselves than for others.” What is one area of your life where following Jesus in leadership is or may require sacrifice, inconvenience, or putting someone else first?
5. What is one specific step you could take this week to follow the example of the Servant King—in your home, workplace, friendships, church, or community?
