

Conversation Questions

1. On a scale of 1-10, what's your current attitude towards your NEED of God?
Why?
2. Romans 3:10 - There is no one righteous, not even one.
How does that make you feel? How do you process that?
Do you feel like you are a good person? How do you "know?"
3. What gets stirred in you knowing that Jesus died to make us good, so that we could be good?
4. What kind of "stormy stuff" have you dealt with in your life?
Has God ever shown up? Shielded you in anyway? Explain
5. If you had to say today whether your life was built on sand or the rock of God where would it be? Why?