

Conversation Questions

1. What would you say has been your greatest failure ever? Why? What did you learn from it?
2. Have you ever been “overconfident” in something or circumstance and later realized that that was what inevitably caused it to fail/cause you to fail? Explain.
3. Where are you may be overconfident right now that you need to make some predecided decisions in order to not fail/fall?
4. On a scale of 1-10, how honest are you? Where would others rate you?
5. What is the last lie you told?
6. What can you do this week to live more honestly and, inevitably, in less failure overall in life?